Subj.: Refusal of Medical Treatment

SIR: -

Greetings and felicitations. May an abundance of Heavenly blessings shine upon you now, as always.

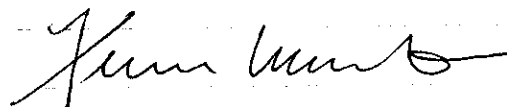

I am on Day 53 of the Fast, announced in Court on 18 Nov 11, about to enter the even more demanding regimen on 16 Jan 12.

I am writing, at the suggestion of CTF Medical Staff, to advise the Court that under no circumstances whatsoever am I to be given any medical treatment! I petition the Court to enforce my wish and desire to exercise my faith freely under the Constitution of the United States.

My wish pertaining my remains, expressed to the Court on 18 Nov 11, remains in effect.

I avail myself of this occasion to renew to the Court assurances of my etd. highest esteem.

Very respectfully,

cc. CTF Medical Staff
